Experience the perfect blend of style, reliability, and fuel efficiency with the 2012 Black Hyundai Sonata. Whether you're commuting through Chicago, running errands around the city, or heading out for a weekend road trip, this sedan delivers a smooth and enjoyable ride. With a spacious interior, smart technology, and impressive fuel economy, the Sonata is the ideal rental choice for navigating the Windy City and beyond.

Key Features

Performance and Efficiency

The 2012 Hyundai Sonata provides a responsive, fuel-efficient drive, reaching up to 34 MPG on the highway. It's a great match for everyday drives across Chicago or longer trips through Illinois and the Midwest.

Spacious and Comfortable Interior

Step into a well-crafted cabin with seating for five, featuring generous legroom and quality finishes. Dual-zone climate control and an intuitive layout create a relaxed, comfortable atmosphere—perfect for Chicago traffic or weekend getaways.

Advanced Technology

Stay connected with Bluetooth, hands-free calling, and a user-friendly infotainment system. Easily access your favorite music and GPS directions while navigating through the city.

Safety First

Equipped with a rearview camera, traction control, and multiple airbags, the Sonata keeps safety front and center. Its solid build and smart driver-assist features help you stay confident behind the wheel on Chicago's busy roads.
